There is great danger of another Ute outbreak.

her idle-lover, let her alone. An English shoemaker manufactures boots to cure bow-legged children. Philadelphia is the biggest manu- takers as yet.

facturer of shoes in the world. It is in November, however, that Society." Doubtless the author meant

Never marry a girl unless you have greenback school teacher took water. known her at least three days and a -On last Thursday night the republi

The war for the Union was sucyears ago -Gen. Hancock. Lord Beaconsfield has surprised his past year. Tairty-three thousand, six hundred company return at any future time. and twenty-six emigrants arrived at tember 30th, 1880.

ler has come in, and the lamp still,

In Dodge county, Ga., a Mrs Wright has made twenty vards of silk, having herself raised the trees, attended to the worms and woven the silk into cloth.

ously shot in the stomach, by Wm. he would promise to do so, and she told him Asums, a bartender in a New York promises were like pie crust. The young saloon, a few nights ago. The wounded man was taken to Bellevue hospital. voung lady wants to see a young fellow The bartender was arrested.

A few days ago sixty men belonging to the eighteenth army corps of "They cured me of sque, biliousness and the French army were quartered in a kidney complaint, as recommended. I had barn at Partas. The owner, who half a bottle left which I used for my two seemingly did not relish their society, little girls, who the doctors and neighborset fire to the building during the both of them one night if I had not given to cause the proceedings of this meeting to night, and the soldiers had only just them Hop Bitters. They did them so much be published in the new-papers of Sed dia. genius has in his own imagination a time to effect their escape in their good I continued their use until they were and present them to the circuit and crime standard of the object of his love -- and shirts. Several of them were badly cured. That is why I say you do not know burned in trying to save their arms half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not records of said courts, also to furnish a and uniforms.

The Paris police lately arrested an Ican Burial Home. English woman named Bird, a most accomplish shoplifter, who has been apples are selling for six cents a barrel, or in the habit of paying an annual visit less than three cents a bushel. Think of it, fellow mortals! Six cents a barrel! to Paris, arriving with several trunks And one apple was potent enough at one empty, and returning after months time to upset the whole human race! How with the tranks full. Every morning left her hotel in the Rue de Richelieu in a carriage on a foraging excursion, in the course of which she slipped what pleased her into an umbrella.

At a recent inquest at Deptford, in England, upon a child eight years of age, it was given in evidence that her father endeavored to obtain the asdiseases, such as tetter, salt rheum, scald through the slightly opened door and bid he has two or three different models. sistance of three physicians successively head, barber's itch, sores, all crusty, scaly him vamoose. Alas! too late; the minion it is a great misfortune for a man money" to pay for their attendance, plaint, itching piles. As a blood purifier it. The pireous appeals of the supposed to have more models than one. They and, on learning that he could not pay illa Pills are excellent. Cure sick and rejecting. After marching the prisoner with him. until the evening, they al! made an nervous headache, dyspepsia, indigestion, well nigh to the city prison, he allowed excuse for not attending. But before ward off malarial fevers, cleansing the sys- him to go his way in peace, not during to

A London paper says; The Ly- Price 25 cents a box, five boxes $1. Ointment to perpetrate a practical jake, which whip him for killing flies, but you ceum theatre presented a brilliant ment 50 cents, three boxes $1.25. Can be had more truth in its foundation than must not wonder at him. If a youth— woman of soul loves just as she hapspectacle on Saturday night. The sent by mail to any address on receipt of poetry. We forgot to mention the incident stalls were crowded with celebrities of price. Address letters, Dr. Swayne & Son, the dramatic, literary and legal world. But the great attraction before the curtain was the Baroness Burdettself. No sooner did she venture to roaders. He has been treight conductor on William Eggert, who has been enpeep out than hundreds of lorgnettes the Missouri Pacific west end,until recently were levelled at her, as the whisper when the company transferred him to their gaged in teaching a private school in There she is !" went up. As for Mr. narrow gu ge line which runs from Kan- this city, was arrested yesterday on a Colorado, have just held a meeting hat belonging to him. and resolved that "if the government togs until last Thur-day night about mid- her teacher under a promise of mardid not take steps to get rid of the night he saw a brakeman walk along in riage, but since, being in a delicate Utes they would take matters into front of the City flotel, Kansas City, ar condition, Egger has refused to have rayed in his suit. He proceeded to make anything to do with her and about their own hands." Evidently Schurz's him pull it off, and compelled the thief to anything to do with her, and about scheme of Ute spoilation seems to deliver up all the clothing, leaving the two months ago he asked to be releasthem too slow; and truckling to from stripped purloiner to depend on his friends ed from the marriage engagement. tier sentiment against the Indians whom the Washington government is bound to protect has procured anything but thanks on the part of the people oi Ouray.

go visited some friends at Marshall. Mich., and preached on a Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church ces, and have observed the most satisfacby invitation of the pastor, who antory results. The Drops also cure constinounced that he would preach in the pation in a short time. - Jackson Patriot. evening. After the services he spent two hours in a beer saloon, where he drank more than he could carry away As thousands can testify, there is nothwith steadiness. Some of the church ing so much to be desired as perfect sight, officers saw him in this condition, and and perfect sight can only be obtained by informed him that he would not be using perfect spectacles. C. G. Taylor our nwed to enter the church. So he own optician, exercises great skil and paat the evening in a carousal with tience in fitting those needing spectacles, with case and comfort to the wearer.

SEDALIA WEEKLY BAZOO.

VOLUME XII.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1880.

NUMBER 20.

CLINTON CHIPS

Special Correspondence Sunday Morning Bazoo, CLINTON, Oct. 16. -M. A. Fyke, one of Clinton's leading attorney's is in your city to-day. -Politics here is red bot, and will

-On yesterday a prominent merchant of this city offered to bet his business house, and the real estate on which it stands, which together are valued at about $15,000, that Hancock would be the next president. No What the our eyes with tears be well

-The Hancock club of this city will have a grand raily at city hall on next The blush of dawn may yet restore will take place and the people will be ad- Sad soul, take comfort, nor forget, presidents are elected in this country. dressed by ex-Gov. Johnson and other emi- That sunrise never failed us yet! nent speakers.

A new book is entitled "Satan in -On Thursday night in a saloon here, a school teacher who is a greenbacker, offered to bet $1,000 that Garfield would be our next president. A Hancocker at once put up $1,000 cash, on Hancock, when the cans celebrated the Indiana victory by hav ing a street meeting, at which Judge Shirk, of your city, and others made speeches, all the business houses and offices and many of the quarters. cessfully closed more than fifteen residences of the Garfielders were illuminated, anvils were fired and a grand blow

-The Williams desmatic company played in City Hall every night during the Hughenden tenants by returning last week to good sized houses. The peotwenty per cent. of their rent for the ple were well pleased with the entertain ments The troupe played "H dden Hend,"
"Fate," "Fanchon" and other poplar playe. The people here will be glad to see the

-On last Sunday night three "toney" Boston during the year ending Sep- boun, a station about 12 miles from here to see the idols of their affection. During the trip they visited the room in which, until recently, To ner saloon held forth, night, it being but dimly lighted, and be beid, relative to the death of Wm. H. H. that they were in a millinery shop and not | the sixth judicial district. a saloon They appropried and The meeting was called to order, and on the matter -I come out roundly. to text I did not get up hext merishall I do to be saved?" Better join been making it warm for them about their man, and P. if. Sangree, secretary.

the democratic party, Bob. Ben But- doing the "millinery shop act," ever since. A committee on resolutions was ap-The form is five miles north of the city, ported as follows; and the many young people from here who ttended the dance enj yed a delightful member of the Sedalia bar and judge of

-Cincho-Quinine cures cutlls and fever

after he had taken his girl home, asped her to give him a good-night kiss. She showed J. C. Little, an actor, was danger- her good teste and sense by refusing unless he would vote for Hancock. He said he man did not get his kies, allee samee. This all occurred on Sixth street. Now, if that Don't Know Half Their Value. chester, N. Y. See other column.-Amer. the deceased.

-In Warren county, New Jersez, prime are the mighty fallen!

-Jones is small; his wife is tall. And both are full of grittle; Says he to her: "You dress too much Says she: "You dress to little!"

- Philadelphia Item. "Swayne's O:ntment and Pills."

and regulator, Swayne's Tar and Sarsapar-interpretation of the plant the evening came the child was dead. tem and bowels of all impurities, restoring go farther, as the supposed policeman was ologists ought to know that it is no af-

by all leading druggists

430 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, Sold

He Got His Coat. Bartlett, he was followed as he moved. Sedalis for the narrow gusge, some one ing made by a young girl named arrested for indecent exposure of person.

A Reminiscence of 1874. In 1874, Dr. Jocob Meyer, Saint Louis, Mich., gave the following opinion: The The Rev. H. G. James, of Chica- Hamburg Drops deserve to be recommended. I have prescribed them for irregularities of the liver, disorders of the stomach and diseases originating from these disturban-

Perfect Sight.

THE SUN RISE NEVER FAILED US YET

Upon the sadness of the sea. The sunset broods regretfully: From the far lonely spaces slow, Withdraws the wistful afterglow.

When a young woman is joined to continue so until after the Nov. election, So out of life the splendor dies; so darken all the happy skies; So gathers twilight, cold and stern— But over head the planets burn. And up the East, another day

> The sunrise never failed us yet. Saturday night. A torch light procession Our light and hope and joy once more -Scribner's Magazine

> > LAMONTE ITEMS.

LAMONTE, Oct. 16, 1880. -J. N. Delby was in town this morning ooking after customers coun y, Pa., are visiting old friends here.

township is to have a mass meeting, expecting to be addressed by Judge Lucy and other emment speakers. -It rains occasionally here, but enough to fill up the railroad pond. The company has to haul water in tanks on the cars and empty it into the pond. -There were several who went from trust, melancholy and despair. here to the picnic held on Hancock's farm last Toesday. Among them A. J. Hail, voung gentlemen of this city went up to C 1- one of the candidates for county judge of this district. He thinks he will be the sac- ject. cessfui one.

Resolutions of Respect.

retreated, and the boys here in town have motion, W. L. Felix was selected as chair--A dance was given tast evening on the pointed, consisting of Cal Jno. F. Pailips, WHEREAS, W.n. W. H. H. Hitt > the criminal court of Johnson county and the sixth judicial circuit, has been sud denly removed from our midst by death. RESOLVED, First, that in the death of Wm. H. H. Hill, in the prime of manhood, we are forcibly reminded of the brevity of life, and the certainty of death, ors to faithfully discharge all his official duties.

who will plank his vote solid for Hancock, reavement that his death causes his devotwhy, that's us. What night shall we call? ed wife and children, and extend to them as air. I am keenly susceptible to recommend them high enough."-B., Ro- copy of these proceedings to the family of Jackeon, at ten o'clock, on Sueday morning, October 17th, for the purpose of attending in a body the funeral of the deceased, SEDALIA, Mo., October 15th, 1880. W. L FELIX, Cherman. P. H. SANGREE, Sec'y.

Jour F. Panars) J H. BOTHWELL, COM. W D. STEELE,

Well, by Jingo.

He was a nice young man, a sort of bandservice semi occasion llv. Night before last, as a guardian of our city's welf-re shining from her countenance. Gaze came along in the south part of the city, he meets gaze, and thought sparkles into his lagging steps, soon came upon the bean- led, and -they fall in love. tiful young man, clad in his stocking feet THE GREATEST REMEDIES THE WORLD HAS and wearing his shoes on his hands. Be-

A Pedagogus' Seduction. Seth Palmer is well known among rail- Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 16.-Dr. The citizens of the town of Ouray, House a pair of punts, a coat, vest and Eggert's pupils for several months. He never saw or heard of his suit of She alleges that she was seduced by is one of the most annoying diseases in the world, and yet all can find sure relief by the use of Da. SWAYNE's OINTMENT. It has been tested in thousands of instances and invariably makes a sure cure. The symptoms are moisture like perspiration, intense itching, increased by scratching, very distressing, particularly at night, as if pin-worms were crawling in and about the rectum; the private parts are sometimes effected. Procure this ointment. Reader, if you are suffering from this distressing complaint, tetter, itch, scald head, ringworm, barber's itch, any crusty, scaly skin eruptions, use Dr. Swayne's Ointment and be cared. bold by all prominent druggists.

Itching Piles

LOVE PASSAGES.

Cupid, I adore thee! There is a charm-dom!-physic- no more! fling them times twenty." is it? a :nourning dress!-water pure, constant immutable."

does, ever did, or can sit down to such then-every rose has its thoras, a meal without running into excess. 'Only think,' said she to me, her a distended stomach and a heavy head, and stagger away with brutish apathy. I am for light diet-milk, Second, That during the many years he rice, fruit-sweet, harmless things of lived and labored among us he commanded nature. No lamb bleeds for me. No the respect of all by his quiform courtesy, stately ox is slain that I may feast, unquestioned integrity and zealous en ext. Old mother earth supplies my sleeder appetites. The deep, deep spring. Third, That we sincerely regret the be- clear as a crystal, the innocent vegetables, ethereal food. Thus I am light our profound sympathy in this their great every moral and natural beauty, which few enthusiastic beef-eaters are. I differ from everybody in another thing. I believe in love at first sight We ought to be able to tell in a week On motion, the resolutions were received whether a woman would do for a wife. The judgment of true love is intuitive; a glance and it is done. A man of mal courts of Patris comey, Mo, with the unexplainable model—the prototype am thunderstruck! exclaimed Harry me, Mr. Schemmerhorn, I must re- raise the revenue is some way or request that they be spread upon the of which exists somewhere in reality, to me, 'The world is at an end. The quest you to desist." although he may have never seen or beard of her. This is won-terful, but On motion the members of the bar were it is true. He wanders about the requested to meet at the office of Philips & world, impervious to all the delicious, thrilling, soul melting beams of beauty, till be reaches the right one. There are blue eyes, they are tender, but they touch not him. There are black. they are piercing, but his heart remains whole. At length, accident flings him into contact with a creature, he hears the tone of her voice, box boy, and a regular attendant at divice he feels the warm streams of soul heard mysterious sounds, and hastening thought, till the magic blaze is kin-It sometimes happens that for one side him on the door step was a part of his model in the imagination of this man

And yet metaphysicians and phrennone other than a wild, herem scarem fair of his. If a school-boy have the I held Fred still with the grasp of a to healthy activity every organ of the body. youth, who improved this opportune mo- organ of distructiveness, you may glant.

> -My life was saved by Warner's Safe I never could tell how many of ters as she is when she stands in the Kidney and Liver Cure. - E B. Lakely, these models Fred had; a great many sunshine. It is the great principle.' no doubt. He was a sad dog, a Don Loveliest of thy sex,' said her com-Juan, a sort or Giovanni in London, panion. and he bid tair to be a Giovanni ia- Fred burst forth leveling both but that was his business. Oh, the tols at the colonel. He pulled the sweet women! It is most incredu- triggers, but they did not go off. Pislous. He must have dealt in magic, tols loaded with sawdust seldom do. It was a perfect blessing to hear him; The colonel uttered a scream and to catch the light and heat of the fled. thousand glances which fell upon him 'Madam,' said Fred, swelling with -sad of which you caught a few stray indignation, have you any more of ones-though only by accident these affectionate friends? Lovely women fell into his mouth like 'Only eight my dear husband. Why > > them all. His soul was as large as 'Caroline,' he answered.

'Yes-I love her.' 'And she?' He arose and opened an escritoire.

"s it not perfectly beautiful?"

The sweet relic of golden supshiny But-'Has Caroline B - such light hair?' Where are they?' asked I. 'I never knew-I always 'They are here,' she answered. thought-I was observing only yes. The door was thrown open, and the terday that -surely, surely you have two officers, with their chapeaux off. made some mistake-see, what is that were heard giggling and laughing in a

'Julia!" Fred hastily looked again into the I read to him his moral. little pigeon-hole, and drew forth an- Husbands all, remember that wives

I smiled. So did he.

What?

Turn up your lip, old Sourcrout! I have loved twenty, fifty, nav, a with ignominy and pain; while the we care not. We, the young, the hundred times. I always love some absurd customent society, neglecting fiddl sticks! I am tired of it. What not love! Love is sole, absorbing, take advantage.

gruel!-a pair of goggles to the eves Hark ve,' said Fred. 'I seldom of the ardent youth? -a lame fool! - cease to love. Adding another angel a peddler's pack full of invaluable to the list does not inter the striking things, but then so heavy! Wisdom out of any of the others. There is no is implanted a love of nature and its is a school master, with a ferule and limit. A man of soul loves just as he most remarkable works. Little Johna frown, a broad-brimmed hat, and a happens to be placed in relation to my Cudlip caught a large and singuvoice that makes the ears ring. It is women. I am warmed by them as I larly beautiful specimen of the beetle always humming away at your ears am when I stand in the sunshine. and your conscience. You are cir- Because I have a garden here, when tribe the other day, and being unwill- severe storm of wind, rain and haif tien of the validity of last Tuesday's comscribed within narrow limits, the beams of the god of day fall upon ing to part from his capture for a sin- prevailed, doing a good deal of dam- election is attracting much attention You must not, for your life's sake, go my shoulders with a pleasing ardor, gle moment smuggled it along to "Le to window glass. Cooper & Jack- among lawyers and others. When the out of bounds. You must not look at must I not feel the warmth when I church in the pocket of his roundthe sunshine, nor pluck the fruit, nor stand in your garden yonder? It is -Mr. Bell and A. T. Pettel, of Green country, Pa., are visiting old friends here.

This was moving week for several of opening flowers. This is wisdom. It of my early love die, most I be ever our citizens. Changing to their winter makes avarice a habit and suspicion a thereafter dead to the most exquisite service began, Johnny leaned over over a carriage containing a hon and gether with Judge Niblack, decide as to duty. It checks the ardor of youth, of human passions? Death is only as favorable for air and exercise state of the constitutional amendment changes as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only and deposited the bug on its cushion as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only and deposited the bug on its cushion as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only as favorable for air and exercise dens even the brightness of virtue. Who has it? The old, the wrinkled of human passions? Death is only and deposited the bug on its cushion the constitutional amendment change the sick, the superannuated—they who different, all excellent, all divine. Who can always be trusted not to fid- the affrighted multitude, mostly not the opinion of many, become null and have drained the dregs of pleasure? Can I be blind? Can I be deaf? get and make a noise in church from groes, and an indescribable scene of void. A consultation of lawyers of It is the lesson of rashness, bought by disappointment; and it teaches distrest, melancholy and despair.

Shall I deny that their voices are the reason that they sleep peacefully the reason that they sleep peacefully disappeared without injuring any discuss the matter and agree, if possitivest, melancholy and despair.

Shortly afterwards two men, ble, upon some means to prevent trust, melancholy and despair.

Clear and intelligent? No I love them the despair one. Shortly afterwards two men, ble, upon the despair one. Shortly afterwards two men, ble, upon the despair one. Shortly afterwards two men, ble, upon the despair one of the despair one. Shortly afterwards two men, ble, upon the despair one of the despair of the

I have no doubt the reader is fond ing to breakfast. So I did not know she whispered: of roast beef and plum pudding, what was the result. Mrs B. is one Now, I detest them. Nothing could of the lovliest of women I ever met. The young lady began to blush red--A dance was given last evening on the J. H. Bothwell and W. D. Steele, who re- be more gross, earthly, stuitifying. I believe I have two or three models der than ever, and to wiggle around Besides, no man fond of such stuff myself. It is pleasant enough, but a little,

Then come custard, ice cream, fruit, eves moistened with tears, her cheek mew. almonds, raisins, wine. You rise with crimsoned with shame, her heart palpitating with distress, 'twelve! He young man in a surprised tone. loves twelve, he says.

> 'A whole jusy!' said I. 'It is monstrous!' said she 'Monstrous indeed!' echoed I. What if I should love twelve offi- "this ain't a picnic ground."

ers? said she. 'Tit for tat,' said I 'Or six,' said she.

'Too good for him,' said I taking style of the period. 'Or three,' said she.

wards me and kissing her soft lips. She was my only sister and I always loved her. The plot was arranged, can't stand it." Frederick had meditated a journey of "Can't stand what?" two days, but was called back, by an monymous rate the same evening. Tall women are so scarce. bired the uniforms at the tailor's. 'I sna is out. What! Kate my dear Kate! Tears gushed from his eyes. 'I saw it myselt,' said the servant. 'Kissed her !' 'Six times,' said John.

from his grasp. 'Come with me?' said I. it may be a mistake." room sat Mrs. B - at her feet a richly- concluded, after mature deliberation, ests and the people, by some such bill hand, received from her a lock of hair. swore he loved her, and left her with an ardent embrace. 'I am suffocating,' said Fred, 'Hush!' I exclaimed. 'See there is Curing the most inveterate case of skin wearing apparel. A maiden fair with diss of genius, there are accidently two or another one. How famililiarly he

'I shall strangle to death!" Patience!

'Dearest colonel!' exclaimed Julia. 'The other was only the lieutenant,'

'I am blessed with few such faith-occurred about the third watch of the night | But this brings me back again to my pens to be placed in relation to men. She is warmed by their noble characripe plums. He had clusters of them, what puts you in such a rage?"

'Prefidious wretch!' They all loved him, and he loved 'Hear me,' said Mrs. B., solemnly. When we married, I intended to de-'What are you thinking of, Fred?' vote my life, my actions, my heart to you. From you, I expected the same. I can see no distinction in our 'She who sailed yesterday for Eng. relative duties toward each other. Love must exist on both sides, or on neither. Whatever may be the opinions of a heartless world, a man of true genius and of true virtue makes his wife-'

'I am not to be preached to, traithair lay curled charmingly in a rose ress,' said Fred. 'I leave you now forcolored envelope. It did look pretty, ever; but not till I take vengeance on my new military acquaintances.

written on the bottom of the paper? most unmilitary manner.

fection, though they do not possess ! ELEGRAPH What a vile, narrow prejudice it is, your despotic power in extering it. The slightest dereliction, even though only the carelessness of a moment on The man that can love only once. the part of a wife, stamps her forever gay, the healthy, the happy! Wis- one. Sometimes two at a time, some- and dec iving her whose happiness is in his keeping. Of these customs, the both to the dogs, say I, Wisdom 'Heartless!' exclaimed I. 'This is "man of true genius" should never

WHAT A BUG DID.

It is sad to think in how few breasts them without sensations of delight.' young man and his "steady company" show people. The cage was patched Cupid - laughing, resy, blooming Frederick feit a hand upon his were shown into the pew in front, and up and moved to where they were Pittsburg, Oct. 16 .-- A bag of paris boy! How the sweet mischief troubles shoulder. He looked up. It was the young lady sat right down on the was opened and the men were stationed Barksville, a mining town near this pearance this early at the church fest gas calling for beer, when a lady arose Hitt, a member of said bar, and judge of is a strong tendency to differ in opin- my way. I have troubles enough of was very thinky attired, it being terion trom other people upon almost ev- my own. Mrs. B. did not come down ribly hot weather, began to blush and ery possible subject I never mouth to dinner. Mr. B did not come home glance nervously at her escort. Then

"Don't Bartholomew."

"That's wot I'm here for." "But it won't do," she whispered said the girl, trying to move up fur- ture from the general features of a pol-'Or one,' said I, drawing her to- ther into the corner. "If you tickle bey that has been largely instrumen-

> "Now dont, Barty. If we are go- est and pay the public debt, as all ing to be married it is no reason for good people of all parties do, and you to act this way. Oh! gracious if we intend to administer the func-asperated young female created a sen-istration of government will continue sation by making a break for the door, as long as human nature lasts, and ail Frederick caught the pistol, and Bartholomew being immediately there- parties agree that the best way for us painted it at his head. I wrenched it after fired out by the sexton for dis- to raise revenue is largely by tariff.

turbing the meeting. We opened the door softly. In the been awakened by the occurrence, treated with justice to all your interdressed young soldier who kissed her to chain up his beetle, keep a discre-t as Eaton's, I believe—that a commisfar-seeing boy.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK MONEY MARRET. NEW YORK, Oct. 16,

Money - Essier ; 26-3 per cent. Prime mere saide paper-12 - ag. Bar Silver-1 13. Sterling-Steady; 814Jong; 84 sight Government Bonds - Generally firm. Ratiroad bonds-Active; pregular. Stocks-liveguise but in main firm.

NEW YORK MARKET. New YORK, Oct. 16. Flour-Without decided change. Wheat-Heavy; 4-2 lower; No. 2. red, Nov. 1 174@184.

change. Onts-Senree ; firmer; 281645. Best- Uschanged Pork-Quiet; mess, 16 Lard - Stude enelor, steam, 8 774.

ST. LOUIS MARKET. St. Levis, No., Oct., 16. Floor- Eester; not lower. 1024 should arise. Wheat-L wer; No. 2, red, @1 02; No. 3, do, 951; No. 4, do 991@ Corn-Lower: 394664.

Oats-Lower: 291 Whisky-Steady: 1 10 Pork-Lower; jobbing; 15 50. Bacon-Lover: 8 50@8 55@8 75. Lard-Nominai; 8 15.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Hogs-Slow: Yorks to Baltimores

Receipts-3,300; shipments, 2,700. CHICAGO MARKET. CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 16. Wheat-Weak; easier; 1 00%. Corn -- Lower ; 394. Oats-Weak; 321. Rye-834. Barley-76. Whisky-1 11.

butchers to faney, 4 80@5.

Pork -- Ensier ; 18.

Lard-Steady ; 8 30. CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET. Hogs-Receipts, 15,000; setive; good nication with the Pacific coast has grades 5 higher; light, 4 70(675; mixed been interrupted for nearly a week. packing, 4 55(a.85; shipping, 4 90(a.5 10. @560; butchers, 2 20@3 40; sto kers, of Pittsburg were down to-day. Fred soon discovered the truth, and 2 4063 10; Western Texans, 2 9063 10.

-Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypo- cures all diseases of the kidney's, in both other rose-colored envelope, another have equal anguish and shame with remedy for consumption, but it is a speci- Fleischmann, druggist, corner Second and vourselves in receiving a share of af- also for broachitis and orthms.

dvertise as the best medit in though

Associated Press Dispatches to the Satoo Over the Western Union Company's Line up to Four O'clock.

A WILD SCENE.

A Storm Overturns a Circus Tent Releasing a Lion and Lioness Which Escape Through a Terrified Crowd.

That same little old oyster that came near drowning last winter in a conducted at that time. They, not know-dalis Bar, held at the office of W. L. Fest tatesmen; and as for poets, went into the room at the change, went into the room at the conducted at that time. They, not know-dalis Bar, held at the office of W. L. Fest tatesmen; and as for poets, such as taken as take hogshead of soup, has put in his ap-

HANCOUK WR TES

Which will Bind the People Closer to Him.

"Somebody will see you, Bartholo- letter is in reply to one addressed to severe October snow storm within the Gen. Hancock by Hon. T. P. Ran- memory of the oldest citizen, reached "Well, wot of it?" murmured the delph, of New Jersey, asking for a here about 4:30 p, m. accompanied by

on the subject of the tariff: GOVERNOL'S ISLAND, Oct. 12.

My DEAR Star: I have retenderly behind her hymn book: ceive! your I tter of the 11th inst. In my letter of acceptance I express "Wot are you giving me?" returned my full sympathy with our American the young man in the S. F. society industries I thought I spoke plainly enough to satisfy our Jersey friends. regarding my tariff views. I am too "There, now, you're at it again," sound a man to advocate any deparme that way, I'll holler right out. I tal in hardling up our industry and tions of the under-peid labor of Europe. If we intend to remain hon-"Ouch! Oh! jiminy!" and the ex- pay off the public debt, but the re-So far as we are concerned, therefore, 600 francs of gold for New York. all talk about free trade is felly. But And meanwhile Johnny, who had the trriff question will probably be silence, and sleep it out. He was a sion of intelligent experts representcan industries-will suggest tariff measures that will relieve us of any crudities and inconsistencies of our present laws and confirm to us a system which will be judicious, just, barmonious and protective as well as stable in its effects.

> I am very truly yours. W. S. HANCOCK.

The Pope's Policy. Rome, Oct. 16 - The Asservantore

reached the Vatican from the city in regard to the attitude the pope intends to observe in regard to the trouble there. The papacy has resolved to Corn-factly active; without important avoid all interferences in the political affeirs of the country and has always commanded the clergy not to depart from its mission of peace. The pope has recently exhorted the bishops to keen strictly within the limits prescribed by the laws of the country in which they are located whenever questions of an external order or of policy

Tough on Thomas. Rockford, Ill., Oct. 16. -The Rock river Methodist Episcopal conference vesterday, made, as the order for ten Dry Salt Meats - Dull; 4 9567 80 o'clock to-day, a set of resolutions requesting the celebrated divine, Dr. Hiram W Thomas, to withdraw from the M. E. church at this session. The reasons set firth are, that he holds views at variance with the historic 60@75; mixed packing, 4 50@4 80; theology of the Methodist church, his avowed conscientiousness in maintaining them, and that his doing so is a source of continued irritation to himself, and a disturbance of the peace of the church, and injurious to the cause of religion.

A General Tornado Prevailing. Chicago, Oct. 16 .- A tremendous harricane is prevailing all over the country this morning. The telegraph companies report their wires down in every direction. Telegraphic commu-Cattle -- Receipts, 2,000; shipping, 4 25

-Prof. Guilmette's French Kidney Pad

ensively read throughout the ent tion of the State, by asiness men as ding all classes, it offers inducence

DAILY BAZOG

The oldest daily paper in the city, as 830,000 Out.

TERMS OF SUNDAY MORNING BAZOO

ich to reach the public.

Dover, N. Y., Oct. 16.-A block of buildings owned by Richards & Simpson and the stove and ware house of the Messrs, Lindsley, burned last night. Loss $50,000, insurance $20,-

More Women Grabbers. St. Louis, Oct. 16. - Seven Mormon elders arrived vesterday from Utahand left this morning for Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, North Carofina and Virginia, whither they go to make converts to the Mormon faith and secure Mormon emigration to Col-

Was the Indiana Election Illegal? Little Rock, Oct. 16. - Last night a Indianapolis, Oct. 16.- The ques-

T. Thompson, The affair caused the wife of a miner named McKenna died from what is now supposed to L 10ther Letter on the Tariff have been the effect of paris green poisoning. There is no clue to the scoundrel who poisoned the well.

The First snow.

New York, Oct. 16 .- The following | Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 15 .- The most more definite expression of his views a furious wind from the Northwest. Fully two inches of snow have, fallen and there are no signs of abatement. A Young Lady for Sale.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16 .-- A prominent merchant of this city received, a day or so ago, a letter from the president of an orphan asylum at Milwankee, Wis, orging him to get possession of the girl Frances Lelea Morris, 14 years of age, who has been advertised for sale in a New York paper for $600 by a family named Brown. seeping Americans from the competi- The Browns took the gift from the residing on South Eleventh street. asylum several years ago, but finding themselves unable any longer to maintain her, they are seeking to reimburse themselves for the outlay, and at the same time to secure for their incumbrance another home. The soother. With a united and harmonious is in receipt of the letter, and will en-"Why, great Scott, Amanda, 1-" country we shall certainly, in time, deavor to get possession of the girl and send her back to Milwaukee.

Let it Come. Havre, Oct. 16.-The steamship Welland took on board here 1,180,-

Perils of Nutting. The Clinton Democrat says:

Two accidents resulting fatally have occurred in the past two weeks to persons while nutting, within a ralins of forty miles from Clinton. It is a habit practiced too generally to climb trees in search of hickory nuts walnuts or pecans. Last week a genleman named Boderman died from injuries received from a fall from a tree. Last Saturday week. little Willie Marlowe, aged twelve years, while searching for pecans near Schell City, fell from a tree and was tatally injured, dving in a short time after being taken home. Seeing his mother's distress, he said: "Do not Romeo savs: Numerous inquiries have ery, mother; I am better now. These were his last words.

Sout, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swellings and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily Pains, Tooth. Ear and Headache, Frosted

Feet and Ears, and all other Feins and Aches. No Proportion or onth equals Sr. Javass On a suffer store, simple and cheep External edy. A that entities but the comparatively ing outlay of 50 Cents, and every one suffering breetiens in Plesen Languages.

SOLD BY ALL DEUGGISTS AND DEALERS

IN MEDICINE. A. VOGELER & CO. Baltimore, Md., U. S. A